

OUR PROCESS

THE CALL

Because every situation is different, Warfare of Grace uses a discovery call to assess the right first steps. First, we want to get to know you: where you're at and how best we can help. If you have an idea of what you are looking for we'll arrange the details. If not, a new plan will be created. If a call feels overwhelming, you can submit a discovery call online by scanning here.

THE COMMUNITY

When you connect with WoG, you become a part of our community. You can call in times of need, support others, and learn to walk in the light. Here, it's safe. Here we take a stand against the enemy together. You will be encouraged to join a local band of brothers and your purity coach will walk with you throughout your day-to-day. Here, no one slips through the cracks. We are all known and loved! Want in? Scan here to join our Community of Grace through Discord (you'll need the discord app first!).

THE CONQUEST

Your Warfare of Grace coach will work strategically through your one on ones, community, and healing group to identify key concepts in your recovery struggle and help you submit those to God. With practical, psychological and Biblical tools, you will find freedom and peace in Jesus Christ. We know because we have seen it and lived it ourselves. Join the men who are saying, "I'm brand new!"

Wisdom and insight...

"... the depth of insight and ability to counsel effectively are as good as a couple of the best counselors that I have had in over 30 years of counseling."

- Bryan
